MARCELLUS A. BROWN.

Marcellus A. Brown, whose picture appears above, was born at Crofton, Ky., forty years ago. He was brought up on a farm and at the age of sixteen began teaching in the public schools of the county. He continued to work on a farm and teach till 1898 when his father, M. B.
Brown, was appointed postmaster at Crofton and he was made assistant postmaster.

He continued to serve in this capacity till the resignation of his father as postmaster in April 1913. During the last seven years of this time he has had almost complete control of the postoffice and made an efficient officer and one the patrons were sorry to lose.

While assistant postmaster he was engaged in the merchandise business in a small way.

He is always loud on the right side of public questions and has always been active in church and school matters.

He is a republican but not a politician. He has been nominated by his party for representative, said nomination being given him without opposition.

He comes before the people of the county asking their support at the November election, and promises if elected, to represent the whole people of Christian county.

Buys A Bull.

While at the State Fair last week R. H. McGaughey bought a nine-months-old Polled Durham bull calf from Edwards & Co., of Versailles, for $300. He arrived yesterday and will head Mr. McGaughey's herd and will be shown at the fair.

SCORING
THE BABIES

Something About the Methods of Judging the Tots at Fair.

ARE JUDGED ON 22 POINTS

Science of Child Rearing to Be Explained By Physicians.

A writer in one of the most popular magazines describes some of the results of the Third Baby Health Contest at the Iowa State Fair. Iowa was a pioneer in this kind of work and naturally results there have passed the experimental stage.
This year hundreds of babies were measured, examined, and scored at this State Fair while thousands of babies have been entered at the various state and county fairs from coast to coast. Parents have gained many new ideas for the diet and proper care of children. That they are pleased with the results is shown by the fact that many of the babies entered in the Iowa Fair this year had been entered on previous years.
Old records were compared with new and in almost every instance the delighted parent learned that the care used throughout the last year had corrected some small imperfection or added to the child's development. If baby scored high last year many wish to see if he is keeping up to the standard since he has been placed on a solid food diet. If he is falling off in any one particular or is failing to develop regularly, his parents are eager to know the where and why.

The scoring at the Iowa Fair is carried on in tents as the great woman's building at Des Moines—for which money has been appropriated largely because of the need of quarters for the baby show—has not been completed. The scoring has been perfected until it is very complete.
Women physicians are in charge and are able to give many timely suggestions to mothers regarding the baby's development that will save much annoyance and perhaps doctors' fees later.

There are three tents: in the first the babies are received, enrolled and the nationality and the family history recorded. In the second tent the physical examination is made.
The measurements are taken, the eyes, nose and throat examined, each separate feature is measured and scored, especial attention is given to facial expression, the quality of the skin and the condition of the muscles and bone. A careful record is made of some 22 points and much other data of great value to the physician is secured. In the third tent the psychological tests are made.
The child is given to handle and talk about a number of simple articles that come within his ability and years. Blocks, rattles and various small articles are used to score his intelligence, tractability, alertness and mental strength.

They have certainly reduced the new idea almost to a science in Iowa and further development in helping parents to rear their children may be expected from the great Middle West where they never do things by halves.

REGISTRATION DAY

Comes on The First Day of The Fair.

Don't forget to register October 7th, the first day of the Pennyroyal Fair. And don't forget to give your party affiliation when you register, if you want to vote at the November election as well as at the primary election for United States Senator next year. Give your party affilia-or not.

WITH THE BUILDERS

Finishing Touches Are Being Put To Many Pretty
New Homes.

The NEW SETTLING BASIN.

Concrete Walk On West 17th To Extend From Main
to Canton St.

Work on Mr. R. E. Cooper's modern pressed brick home, with stone trimmings, is moving along nicely and will be ready for occupancy about the 1st of December, should the Indianapolis firm get the terrazzo floors down by that time.

This is indeed a model building and has every imaginable convenience. It will be heated throughout by a furnace, has three bath rooms, the china closet and refrigerator are built into the walls, has an open sleeping porch on the West side and pretty closets for clothing, etc., are on every floor and at every turn. In many respects it is the most modern home in the city.

Mrs. Calvin Layne's cottage that was partially destroyed by fire July 21st, has been made new and looks better than ever. Some needed changes were made in the interior and a pretty North porch has been added. Mr. Geo. N. Duffer, who was living in the house when it burned, expects to move back on the first of October.

Alex W. Henderson not long since purchased from E. M. Flack a pretty building lot on South Virginia street, adjoining the premises now occupied by Mrs. L. Nash. Mr. Henderson has just let the contract for a handsome residence.

V. M. Williamson, who a few days ago sold his home on West Seventh street, Wednesday bought what is known as the Buckner Leavell lot, on South Virginia street, and will erect a modern up-to-date residence as soon as possible.

R. M. Fairleigh's pretty new home on North Main street, adjoining the premises of Mrs. J. I. Landes, is receiving the finishing touches. As soon as Mr. and Mrs. Fairleigh return from the West they will move into one of the prettiest little homes in the city.

Walter A. Radford, who has been living in the DeTreville home on East Eighteenth street for several years, has purchased a lot adjoining the premises of T. J. McReynolds, on South Virginia street, and has let the building contract for quick completion.

There has not been a cessation of work at the Jennie Stuart Hospital, but the contractors have been hampered by their inability to get sufficient stone to complete the wall of the basement story. Half a dozen or more men, however, are kept busy doing other work.

H. W. Linton's new home on South Walnut street, next to Dr. Harned, is going up and Mr. Linton hopes to move into it by the first of December. It is a semi bungalow and will have all modern conveniences, and will be one of the most attractive new homes in that part of the city.

The basement of the Waller & Trice building at Main and Eighth streets has been completed and it is a beautiful piece of concrete work.
Carpenters are placing the joists for the first floor and as soon as the large steel beams arrive they will be put up. Then the real rush will begin.

Thos. L. Morrow, local agent of the I. C. R. R., got into communication by wire with the officials Thursday in regard to the umbrella roof over the stopping place at the fair grounds. The fair officials have the promise that it will be completed by the opening day of the fair.

The large settling basin being built for the Water Company is rapidly nearing completion and in a short

FARMERS HAD
GOOD TIME

With Planters Hardware Co. At The Avalon Wednesday Night.

WAS A FEAST AND A SMOKER.

Stereopticon Lecture on The Superiority of Steel Fence Posts.

A feast, served by the ladies of the Eastern Star, a smoker, a lecture by an expert, illustrated with stereopticon views and a talk by Col. Wilgus, of the Planters Hardware Company, was what the farmers who accepted the invitations sent out by Col. Wilgus for Wednesday night enjoyed. The place was The Avalon and the occasion was to let the farmers know that the American steel post is not a substitute for wooden posts, but the post of all posts for fencing. Col. Wilgus, who in connection with the Planters Hardware Co., had prepared for entertaining 10 farmers, and to make the evening a perfect one, had a quintette of the old time fiddlers of the city to be there and furnish music.
This was an enjoyable part of the evening's program and the musicians, Messrs. T. E. Bartley, W. F. Randle, Robert McCarroll, S. T. Fruit and Harry Carroll, rendered some old time selections.

SURPRISE MARRIAGE

Hopkinsville Boy and Louisville Young Lady Married
Sunday Night.

John Hille, the only son of Mrs.
Fannie Hille, was married last Sunday night. The bride who is only 20 years of age and is a Louisville young lady, was Miss Mattie Young.
The marriage ceremony was spoken by Magistrate James E. Keigwein.
Magistrate Keigwein united two other parties who had crossed the river the river the same night to have the matrimonial knot tied.

The Courier-Journal of Tuesday contained an announcement of the three weddings, but the paragraph escaped the notice of Mr. Hille's family. Mrs. Hille received a letter from John Wednesday and he began his letter by saying that he had married "the sweetest woman in the world" and he was coming back home in a few days and would bring his wife with him.

Mr. Hille is a plumber and has been working in Owensboro for a year or more. His mother was not greatly surprised at the announcement of the marriage, as he has been making numerous trips to Louisville for some time.

At Johns-Hopkins Hospital.

Mr. O. L. Bass, father of Mrs.
James M. Forbes has been in Johns-Hopkins Hospital, Baltimore, for treatment of 11 days or more. Mrs.
Forbes left the first of this week to stay for a while with Mr. Bass, who may have to remain under treatment for some time yet, though the latest intelligence as to his condition was encouraging.

time nothing but clear water will be forced through its mains. The capacity of the new basin will be more than sufficient to supply all new demands for many years to come. The company has faith in the future of Hopkinsville and is wisely building for a larger city.

W. H. Hester, the contractor for building the concrete sidewalk on West Seventeenth street, South side, began work Thursday. Work will be pushed in order to get it completed before cold weather. It will extend from Main to Canton street.

And Jury Takes The Case.

FOUR SPEECHES WERE MADE.

Elder Waters Gets a Year In Jail For The Killing of Gracie Jefferson.

The trial of K. H. Keach, for killing Eph. Gunn, col., in January 1912, was begun after the following jury was empaneled Thursday: Clifton Haddock, Charles Word, W. H. Huxley, F. M. Dulin, Henry Simpson, B.
M. Weaver, W. M. Hancock, Otho Robinson, R. P. Pace, Urey Cornelius, Bob Pepper and J. B. Wood.

The evidence of Capt. John R.
Green and others was taken to show the shooting of Gunn by Policeman Keach at the corner of Main and Fourteenth streets after a brief altercation in which Gunn snatched the officer's billet. Constable T. S.
Winfree, the first man to arrive on the scene said Gunn was lying on the crossing with the billet under him.
He was shot and died in a short while.

The defendant said he attempted to arrest Gunn for being drunk and that he resisted, grabbed his stick and had it raised when he fired upon him in self defense.

The testimony was concluded and the speaking began yesterday morning. Gr. W. Southall for the defense and John Feland for the prosecution spoke in the forenoon and C. H.
Bush and Commonwealth's Attorney Smith in the afternoon and the case went to the jury late yesterday afternoon.

Last Wednesday.

Miss Mary Butler, of Clarksville, and Mr. James E. White, of this county, were married by Judge Walter Knight on the 12 of April at the court house. For reasons known best to themselves they desired to keep the marriage a secret and prevail on Judge Knight to keep the affair out of print. The bride is an attractive and popular young lady of Clarksville and the groom is a brother of Mr. John White, the popular farmer and horse trainer.

SOUGHT FOR DEATH IN VAIN

Experience of Two Men Goes to Prove That the Black Angel Will Not Be Hurried.

Ever since his first wife left him in 1909 Peter B. Hicks of Passaic, N. J., has wanted to commit suicide, but, as he told Special Master of Chancery Van Blarcom recently, he lacked the nerve. The other day he hit upon the alternative expedient of seeking employment in the Du Pont Powder Mill company's works at Wayne, N. J.
Death kept away from him there until 1912. Then he recovered his cheerfulness.
Shortly afterward there was an explosion and he was blown through a window.

Hicks' case is not unlike that of Robert P. Schroeder, of Oak Park, Chicago. His sweetheart died the night before they were to be married, just a year ago. He was inconsolable.
He had been in the United States army, and with the soldier's instinct for danger to help him forget his misery—and to help him out of it if possible—he went to Mexico, joining the rebels arrayed against Madero.

He had not been three days in the rebel ranks before Madero was taken prisoner. He went to the coast and got aboard a vessel going to Santo Domingo, where there was still a fair sized revolution in progress. He had no sooner reached San Pedro de Ma-coris when the revolutionists fought their last battle and marched triumphantly into the capital. Schroeder began to feel better by this time and last reports had him engaged to a Spanish girl visiting in Santo Domingo.—New York Herald.

Mrs. Powell Almost Dead.

Dry Ridge, Ky.—"I could hardly walk across the room," says Mrs.
Lydia Powell, of Dry Ridge, "before I tried Cardui. I was so poorly I was almost dead. Now I can walk four miles and do my work with much more ease. I praise Cardui for my wonderful cure." Cardui is successful in benefiting sick women, because it is composed of ingredients that act specifically on the womanly constitution, relieving headache, backache, irregularity, misery and distress. Only a good medicine could show such continual increase in popularity as Cardui has for the past 50 years. Try Cardui, the woman's tonic.

NO TROUBLE TO CHURN.

An ingenious New Hampshire farmer says he delivers fresh butter to his daughter in a village, five miles away, in this manner. When he leaves home he ties a bucket of ripe cream under the seat of his motorcycle and when he arrives in town the butter is perfectly churned. All his daughter has to do is to put in the salt and work the butter, when it is ready for use.

Too Much Sleep Injurious.

Many people look forward to a holiday as a time when they can sleep as much as they like, but a widely known Swiss doctor maintains that the benefits of a holiday may be neutralized by too much sleep. More than eight hours for healthy people who work with their brains is, generally speaking, too much, he says.
In high altitudes five hours of good, refreshing sleep is quite enough at holiday times. Nervous people are apt to remain in bed, half asleep and half awake, longer than is good for them. This sleep specialist believes that such people ought to get up as soon as they awake, and never give way to the fascination of dreaming half awake. Too much sleep he pronounces to be as bad for us as too much food.

Had to Call for Aid.

A good story is told of Gilligan and Milligan, two married men who, wandering home late one night, stopped at what Gilligan supposed was his residence, but which his companion insisted was his own house. Gilligan rang the bell lustily, and a window was raised and a lady inquired what was wanted.

"Madam (hic)," inquired Mr. G., "isn't that his, Mr. Gilligan's house (hic)?"

"No," replied the lady, "this is the residence of Mr. Milligan."

"Well," exclaimed Gilligan, "Mrs.
Gilligan (hic), I beg your pardon (hic). Mrs. Milligan, won't you come down to the door (hic) and pick out Milligan, for Gilligan wants to go home."

Where Nero Dined in Splendor.

Excavators in Rome have uncovered the ancient dining room of the Emperor Nero. The chamber revolved by machinery. Underneath were three vertical shafts, down one of which the explorer descended for 120 feet without reaching the bottom. But near one of the other shafts he found a tank, and below this a chamber twenty feet wide by sixty feet long, with stones carved as cog wheels, which evidently represented the machinery by which the dining room was made to revolve. Presumably slaves furnished the power. Close at hand and under the dining room was a bath, with rooms for various bathing processes, the walls being beautifully decorated with pictures.

Women Run Successful Bank.

The possibilities of work in a bank as a career for women have been demonstrated by Farrow's bank in London for women, which was inaugurated a few years ago, and which, after being managed by women, has proved so successful that it has been transferred to new and enlarged premises in the very heart of the West End. The manager says that the success of the bank is due to the hearty support of the women and that the business transacted is the same as that transacted by any other bank.
The entire staff is composed of women.

Dead From a Thorn Thrust.

A thorn of her favorite rose puncturing her finger while she stretched forth her hand to pluck it for a friend's bouquet, caused the death of Miss Susan Reichart at Greenport, N. Y.
Several doctors united in trying to cure the blood poisoning that resulted from the piercing wound, but their efforts were unavailing.

Growing in Favor.

The water from the well located on the farm of Luther H. Smithson, near Church Hill, is growing in favor every day. The most obstinate cases of indigestion, constipation and stomach trouble are yielding to the medical qualities of this water by a few days use. Probably half the people who say they have "heart trouble" have nothing but indigestion, sometimes manifestly in an acute form. Try the water from Mr. Smithson's well for a few days and test its virtues for yourself. He delivers it your home at 12½ cents a gallon.

Among the many who are using it with beneficial effects we mention: Flem Clardy, Muncey Moss, Roy Kenner, Gus Breathitt, Jno. C. Hoce, J. W. Lander, Rev. E. W. Barnett, Del. Henderson, John C. Gary.

The Italian resort to a very simple method when they wish to obliterate the injurious effects of salt air and sunbathing after a visit to their villas, the shore of the Adriatic, the Tyrrhenian sea or the lakes. They bathe the face with the white of an egg, well beaten, let it dry on the skin and rinse it off in soft water after fifteen minutes. The treatment is repeated three or four times, and always at night just before retiring.

Pretty Sure.

If a man who has a product of his own to sell can continue to think well of it after he has interviewed two or three people who are trying to keep him from finding out that they really want to buy it, he is pretty sure to possess the elements of success.

NEW ADORNMENT FOR WOMEN

"Heliodor" is Entitled to Rank With the Ruby and Emerald, German Experts Declare.

A new gem, given the name of "heliodor," and found in German South Africa, has taken its place among the jewels. The German kaiser recently presented one of the new stones to the kaiserin. The discovery of the new stone was made by the governor and director of the German colonial society while he was traveling in German South Africa.
In the sand near the railway between Swakopmund and Windhuk he found a large crystal, rough and unpromising in appearance. He carried it with him to Germany and had it cut and polished in a diamond cutting factory. The result was a surprising clear, pale aquamarine of great brilliance. The German colonial office immediately took possession of the ground upon which the crystal was found, and a great number of the crystals are now making their appearance upon the German market. Experts agree that the new gem is entitled to rank with the ruby and emerald.—Popular Mechanic Magazine.

LOOKING AT IT LOGICALLY.

A well-known politician discussing the other day the keen interest New York boys take in local politics, related an experience he had while talking with a group in a clubhouse of an East side political organization. After discussing the coming election in New York city, the conversation turned to the peculiar condition in the state politics and Governor Sulzer's attitude toward Tammany.

"If Abraham Lincoln were alive," said the politician, "what do you boys think his policy would be in this situation?"

A small boy of twelve, standing on the outer edge of the group, piped up: "Well, sir, don't you think he would be too old to have any policy?"

PERFECTION OF RED TAPE.

The efficiency of the French system of highly centralized government, even in the face of the upheavals of nature, has been comically illustrated. A slight earthquake shock having been felt in a part of the French provinces, the subfect of one department, an important government official, telegraphed to the minister of the interior as follows: "On the first information of the seismic tremors I summoned the government attorney, the lieutenant of gendarmerie and the police magistrate. I have assumed my uniform and now await your orders."

words over nothing."

MUST TALK SOME.

husband from talking in his sleep?"

"Well, you might try giving him a few opportunities in the day time."

CLAIMS WONDERS FOR DRUGS

Among Other Things, French Physician Asserts Gold Tricyanide Is a Cure for Tuberculosis.

Another cure for tuberculosis has just been announced by a French medical officer, Doctor Rosenthal. According to him, the remedy is to be found in gold tricyanide, which, taken in infinitesimal doses, is, he declares, the most deadly enemy of the Koch microbe. One-half of a milligramme of this salt, he states, is sufficient to sterilize a whole litre of culture of tuberculosis germs while curiously enough a stronger dose has no effect. Doctor Rosenthal says that remarkable results may be obtained by repeated injections of one-fifth of a milligramme into the blood, especially at the spots most affected by the disease. The objection having been made that this drug, while killing the germs, may also injure the organism of the patient, the doctor states that this is not so, pointing out that a similar drug, cyanide of mercury, is habitually taken in daily dose of a centigramme without ill effects. Doctor Rosenthal, moreover, asserts that the treatment will be specially valuable in cases of lupus, adenitis and meningitis. His researches, which have aroused considerable interest in the scientific world, are being made the subject of further tests and experiments.

WHAT SHOULD HE BE LIKE?

Writer Wants to Know Just How a Literary Man Is Supposed to "Look the Part."

"He does not look like a literary man." There you have it, much reiterated, in newspaper descriptions, in "literary gossip," current and between stiff covers. How he should look, to look literary, we are never told. How he does look now that he does not look literary, we are informed in a thousand phrases. To get at the theoretic image we must creep by the eliminations.

In earlier times it was difficult. There can be no pretense that genius ever advertised itself by infallible signs. But there were good old days when you were supposed to tell a poet as quickly as you would a policeman. This must have been a great comfort. If you doted on poets you could be grateful for the label that made it easy to pick them out. If you disliked poets, or if you were merely conservative about them, you might be equally grateful. The long hair was an immense help to the imagination—to the poet's, I have no doubt, as well as to the spectator's. It became a sign, and much of humanity joins the Tammany chieftain in welcoming the "symbion."—Alexander Black, in Atlantic.

MEXICO'S FUTURE.

Herman Whitakes, author of "The Mystery of the Barranca," puts into the mouth of a rich Mexican landholder the following suggestion as to the future of his country: "I have seen that no man can dam the tide, or shut the gates Porfirio Diaz opened. As it went with Texas and Alta California, so will it go with all of our states. Against your Yankee our softer people can never stand. In the time to come only those of us that mix blood with shrewder strains will be able to withstand the flood."

TO USE HOLLOW CONCRETE.

SALE OF SWINE

Mr. Brewer Disposed of Nearly Hundred Head.

Mr. G. E. Brewer's sale at public auction of Duroc Jerseys Wednesday was a big success. Mr. Brewer makes a specialty of raising Duroc Jersey swine and the sale was made in order to dispose of his surplus stock.

Attendance Campaign.

The second Sunday of the Autumn Attendance Campaign at the Ninth Street Christian church was a day of good services, largely participated in by members of the church and others. The largest attendance in months was had at the Bible School. One of the noteworthy facts of this unique campaign is the working of the record card on which each member of the church keeps memoranda of the services which he attended from week to week.

Sunday will be the third of the course of nine Sundays being covered by the period of this campaign. Two features of special character are planned for the day. In the morning will occur an autumn rally service of the Bible School. At this gathering it is confidently expected that the school will go above the large attendance of last Sunday. At night the minister will give a lecture on "Seeing Jerusalem." Admission will be by ticket but the tickets are quite free, being used merely to get a record of attendance for the information of officers of the church. Each attendant is requested to write his name and address on his ticket and hand it to the doorkeeper. Those who have not got tickets before can get them at the office in the vestibule.

SOMETHING DOING

At The Oldest Dry Goods House In the City.

"It's the best if it come from Jones," is an expression that has the semblance of a proverb. T. M. Jones, by never misrepresenting anything he sells and aided by a judicious use of printers' ink, is the pioneer dry goods man of the city, having several years to his credit as a seniority. He is now showing his recent purchase of fall goods and invites his lady friends and all others to inspect the many new things he has just received from New York. We cannot mention all of them, but the pretty line of ladies' suits and coats is something that is worthy of everybody's inspection. And then there's a line of plain and fancy dress goods, silks of every kind, Russian cords, poplins, ratines, Galateas, etc., that must be seen to form an idea as to what the new stock is as to quantity, style and adaptation to the wants of every class of buyers.

Misses Ora Summerhill and Olivia Gower and Mrs. Ella Basford have returned from Knoxville, Tenn., after spending the summer with friends and relatives.

MRS. GISH ORR

Passed Away Thursday at Trenton of Heart Affection.

The relatives of Mr. Gish Orr, of Trenton, were called up over the telephone Wednesday morning and received the sorrowing announcement that Mrs. Gish Orr had suddenly. Mrs. T. L. Metcalfe, a sister of Mr. Orr, left on the first train to be with her brother and his daughter in their deep sorrow. Mrs. Orr had been in feeble health for some time, but there seemed no cause for alarm as she was as well as usual when she arose Thursday morning. Shortly after breakfast she was taken ill and lived but a short time. Mrs. Orr was Miss Nan McGuire, of Todd county. She was in her 45th year and is survived by Mr. Orr and one daughter.

Home building should begin now, when money can be gotten for the purpose, by becoming a member of the Hopkinsville Building & Loan Association. Office at First National Bank.

TWO ALARMS SAME DAY

Both In Extreme Limits and Both Altogether Unnecessary.

"SNOWBALL" IN BAD PLIGHT.

Department Called Out For The First Time In a Month.

At 3 o'clock Thursday afternoon the fire department was called out to East Fourth street. The roof of a house belonging to a colored woman had caught from a spark from the chimney but had been put out by the time the firemen reached the house. The damage to the roof was only $5 or $6.

The second alarm was turned in at 3:45. The department made a quick run almost to the end of South Virginia street. Dry grass back of the home of Dr. Frank Bassett had caught on fire, but was put out without much trouble.

The department had enjoyed a month's rest, the last calls having been made August 28, the first to the home of James Moor, Jesup Avenue, the second to the home of Abraham Groffman, at Liberty and Third streets.

The call to South Virginia street Thursday caused great labor on the department. Their wagons were as clean and bright as could be when they started out, but when they reached Fifteenth street they struck a square that had been covered with coal tar. The horses were going at terrific speed and the thin tar was splattered all over the wagons and horses. The firemen got to work early Friday morning cleaning up and they had a terrible job on hand. They had to take off the wheels of the wagons and overhaul everything and it took the whole day to finish up. Even "Snowball," the fleet footed white horse, the general favorite, had to be washed off several times to make him look like his former self. The department had not been notified of the street having been oiled and found it out too late to make a turn.

THE THRICE-A-WEEK EDITION OF THE NEW YORK WORLD

Practically a Daily at the Price of a Weekly.

No Other Newspaper in the World Gives So Much at So Low a Price.

This is a time of great events and you will want the news accurately and promptly. The Democrats, for the first time in sixteen years, will have the Presidency and they will have the Presidency and they will also control both branches of Congress. The political news is sure to be of the most absorbing interest.

There is a great war in the Old World, and you may read of the extinction of the vast Turkish Empire in Europe, just as a few years ago you read how Spain lost her last foot of soil in America, after having ruled the empire of half the New World.

The World long since established a record for impartiality, and anybody can afford its Thrice-a-Week edition, which comes every other day in the week, except Sunday. I will be of particular value to you now. The Thrice-a-Week World also abounds in other strong features: serial stories, humor, markets, cartoons; in fact, everything that is to be found in a first class daily.

THE THRICE-A-WEEK WORLD'S regular subscription price is only $1.00 per year, and this pays for 150 papers. We offer this unequalled newspaper and the Hopkinsville Kentuckian together for one year for $2.65.

The regular subscription price of the two papers is $3.00.

SPECIAL TO WOMEN

Do you realize the fact that thousands of women are now using as a remedy for mucous membrane affections, such as sore throat, nasal or pelvic catarrh, inflammation or ulceration, caused by female ill health. Women who have been cured say "It is worth its weight in gold." Dissolve in water and apply locally. For ten years the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. has recommended Paxtine in their private correspondence with women.

For all hygienic and toilet uses it has no equal. Only 50c. a large box at Drugists or sent postpaid on receipt of price. The Paxton Toilet Co., Boston, Mass.

COULD ONLY SHOUT GREETING

Sea Captain Had Not Seen Sister in Ten Years, But That Communication Had to Content Him.

For the first time in ten years Captain Danielsen of the Norwegian steamship Cibao got close enough the other day to the Norwegian steamship Catharine Cunco to shout greetings through a megaphone to his sister, the wife of Captain Sorensen.

Both ships are engaged in the fruit trade between this port and Jamaica, but it was the first time they were ever in the same port at the same time. Captain Danielsen learned the Cunco was here when a pilot boarded his ship at the Delaware Capes a few nights ago.

Under full speed, the little ship was sent up the Delaware. When it arrived off Marcus Hook quarantine, Captain Danielsen was disappointed to see the Cunco steaming on its way to the sea. He signaled to the Cunco and Captain Sorensen called Mrs. Sorensen to the deck. She called to her brother through a megaphone and as the ships passed flags were dipped and whistles blown in salute. —Philadelphia North American.

ENAMEL

Miss Footlight—Don't you think it was nice of the old gentleman in the first row to say my face reminded him of Dresden china—so soft and pink, I suppose?

Mr. Footlight—Perhaps he meant it was liable to crack.

GREEN FIRST.

An Irishman who was too old for active work was offered the position of crossing tender at a small railroad station. He looked dubious as the duties of the office were explained to him and the meaning of the various flags was clearly stated.

"In the case of danger with a train coming, of course, you wave the red flag," said his friend, proceeding with his explanation.

A hard old hand grasped his arm. "Man, dear, it'll never do," said Patrick, shaking his head solemnly. "I could never trust myself to remember to wave a red flag when there was a green wan handy." —Current Literature.

BLAMED IT ON BREWERY.

Mrs. Crocker was enjoying her first trip abroad. Her husband had recently acquired great wealth, and, although she knew that her knowledge of society was vague, she did not wish others to ascertain the fact.

One evening she was invited to a box party at a theater. Seated next to her was one of the leaders in society, Mrs. Stone.

"I find the acoustics of the house very bad," remarked Mrs. Stone, "don't you?"

"Yes, it does seem so," replied Mrs. Crocker, thoughtfully. "I understand it comes from a brewery in the neighborhood."

MATHEMATICAL JAGS.

"Smith declares that the snakes he sees all around him are multiplying."

"I suppose, then, the snakes he sees are adders."

HIS EXPERIENCE.

Missionary—And you found no happiness in leading a double life? Sinner—I felt as if I were leading the lives of two dogs.—Puck.

CONTRARIWISE.

"Strange that houses in an earthquake region are unstable."

"Why strange?"

"Aren't they on a rock?"

PROPER COURSE.

"Talking of trains, this one seems to be on the wrong track."

"Then we had better switch off the subject."

HOT RETORT

The Preacher—I've just received word that my son has captured a scholarship at Yalevard College, and I'm vastly proud.

The Layman (a sport)—I know just how you feel. Felt that way myself when my brag dog won a cup at the bench show.

BIGGEST JOKE ON MARKET

The Lady Novelist—What was the longest joke you ever saw?

The Joke Writer—A copy of the Congressional Record.

HAPPENED AT BRIDGE

"That rich heiress let me hold her and last night."

"You must be pretty strong with her, eh?"

"No; it was a put-up job. Her hand was a bum one, yet she blamed me for losing the game."

COULDN'T FOOL HER

Marjorie—You'd never dream the number of proposals I've had lately.

Dorothy—No, dear; but I'm sure you dreamed most of them.

SUCH IGNORANCE

Mrs. Newwed—Tom, there's no need for anyone to starve these days.

Mr. Newwed—Why, dearie?

Mrs. Newwed—I saw lots of places downtown that had out signs "Free Lunch."

CANNIBALS IN ANCIENT DAYS

Scientist Claims to Have Found Evidence of Existence of the Practice in Prehistoric Times.

That prehistoric man had cannibalistic propensities is shown by deposits in the rectangular house ruins of Nebraska, reported by Dr. Robert F. Gilder, archaeologist for the Nebraska State museum. In Records of the Past Doctor Gilder describes the discovery of a veritable charnel house in Sarpy county, showing strong evidence of cannibalism. He says:

"I explored a small ruin, and on its floor were charred human bones, many of which had been mashed, and near a large, flat boulder, southwest of the fireplace in the center of the ruin, were many bone fragments. Beside the rock was an unshaped hammer stone which bore evidence of much use. My conclusions were that the bones had been broken for their marrow. . . . One cache in particular was filled with human bones, and the 'plant' seemed to indicate they had been deposited when covered with flesh. Seventeen frontal bones indicated that number of persons had been victims of cannibals. Most of the skulls were of women and children. Nearly all the bones in caches and on the floor were more or less burned and blackened by fire, and reposing within a fractured pot were several rib pieces which had attained the color of bones after boiling."

IN GREENLAND

"Are you able to sleep all through the night?"

"No; I have to get up once a week and wind that blamed old eight-day clock."

LAST SCOTCH PARLIAMENT.

Will Scotland have a parliament of its own again? It was on the 1st of May, 1707, that the legislative union of England and Scotland took place, "amid the dejection and despair," wrote Sir Walter Scott, "which attended on the downfall of an ancient state, and under a sullen expression of discontent that was far from promising the course of prosperity which the treaty finally produced." However, Seafield, the chancellor, gayly remarked when the parliament of Scotland adjourned forever, "There's an end of an auld sang."

MERELY A NICKNAME.

Mrs. Handout—You say you are called the "colonel," in what army have you served?

Ragged Rogers—In de army of de unemployed, mum.

MUCH WORSE.

"What's the matter?"

"My wife found a letter in my pocket."

"I see. One you had forgotten to mail."

"No; one I had forgotten to burn."

APPROPRIATE FATE.

"I dared that bragging swimmer to take a header."

"With what result?"

"It proved a facer."

ITS REPUTATION.

"The slit skirt seems to be regarded generally as too giddy and sporty."

"Yes, it does appear to be something of a cut-up."

WAY WITH MEN.

"The men at our church certainly contribute cheerfully for one cause."

"What is that?"

"To send the minister away."

THE IDEA.

"Why do so many people have automobiles?"

"I suppose it is to keep in the running."

The Love Letters of a Confederate General

WE begin in the November issue a series of real love-letters written over fifty years ago by one of our national heroes to his sweetheart during the period of '61 to '65. He was as great a lover as he was a general, therefore these letters combine authentic history and exquisite romance. They sound a human note that no other work of literature has done in a decade; it is war, it is romance, it is history, it is literature. You simply can't afford to miss this wonderful series—an inside story of the Civil War now published for the first time and containing all the freshness of a contemporary happening. FELT HE HAD KICK COMING Village Grocery Man Really Should Find a Way to Keep His Business Interests Separate.

At a recent social session in Mount Holly, Surrogate Joseph Huff, of that place, told of an incident which convincingly demonstrates that some kicks are eminently justified.

In a certain section of Jersey, so ran the story of the surrogate, there is a village grocery store, where, besides salt and prunes, everything may be purchased from a collar for a pet rhinoceros to a sprocket wheel for a pinola. Together with this the grocery store is the local post office.

A few days ago a farmer entered the store with something on his mind, and after taking a fresh chew of tobacco to fortify himself, he leisurely approached the counter.

"Look here, David," he complain-ingly remarked, addressing the proprietor, "I ain't kickin' none, but hain't there some way that ye kin kind o' sepparate yer grocery business an' yer post office bizness so that they won't mix quite so much?"

"There you go complainin' ag'in, Joshua!" responded the grocery man.
"What's achin' you this time?"

"No hard feelin's, David," rejoined Uncle Josh, "but t'other day I got some postage stamps here jes' arter Jake Smith got two gallons of ile, an' every derned one o' them tasted o' kerosene."—Philadelphia Telegraph.

ECLIPSED

"Brown certainly loves his wife.
He actually wears the neckties she makes him."

"Yes; but Jones goes that one better."

"Yes?"
"I should say so. I've seen him wear the red mittens his wife knitted."

CRAWL STROKE POPULAR.

It is just a decade since the first description of the crawl swimming stroke came to us from Australia and caused our racing men to take up its study, but the ten short years have completely revolutionized the art of natation in this country. A striking illustration of what the crawl has done for us may be found in the comparison of our national records, as they were before its advent, and as they now stand.

It may be added, too, that we have only begun to appreciate the full possibilities of the new stroke. The attitude of many experts toward it, who maintained in the past, and still maintain, that it is too punishing on the muscular system to be used over long courses, has deterred a number of the leading distance swimmers from adopting it. But of late a few bold spirits have tackled tests of endurance with it and done so well that it seems only a question of time before it finds universal favor for all around work.

AVIATION AS A BUSINESS.

Aviation is fast becoming a business of huge proportions, especially in France, where 489 persons hold licenses to fly. It would be more strictly accurate to say "have held," for many of them have taken their last flights.

In 1911 there were built in France 1,350 aeroplanes with a total horsepower of 80,000. In 1912 the number was raised to 1,425, and this year 2,000 have already been built.

Putting the average cost at $3,000 (which would be nearer the lowest price than the average) the aeroplanes of 1912 would represent about $4,500,000, besides a vast sum for accessories. For instance, last year about 8,000 propellers were required.

ON THE BEACH.

"Anything in that floating bottle?"
"Great find. Had a girl's name in it."
"Shucks! I thought maybe it had a drink in it."

Old Lady's Sage Advice.

Knoxville, Tenn.—Mrs. Mamie Towe, of 102 W. Main Street, this city, says: "If you had seen me, before I began to take Cardui, y u would not think I was the same person. Six doctors failed to do me good, and my friends thought I would die. I could hardly get out of bed or walk a step. At last an old lady advised me to take Cardui, and now I can go most anywhere." All silling women need Cardui, as a gentle, refreshing tonic, especially adapted to their peculiar ailments.
It is a reliable, vegetable remedy, successfully used for over 50 years.
You ought to try it. Advertisement

INSISTED ON MAKING TRADE

Collie Dog and Hen Exchanged Offspring and Objected to Interference in the Matter.

A fine Scotch collie owned by C. J.
Rodman recently gave birth to seven pups. A Barred Rock hen of the same establishment hatched out a brood of ten "peeps" about the same time, writes a Ravent (O.) correspondent of the New York Evening Telegram. The collie, with her pups, were placed in a small kennel near the coop where resided the hen and her brood. On the same day the collie and the Barred Rock decided to swap families. That night Rodman came home and found the collie with the "peeps" and the Barred Rock with the pups. They were both mothering their families and the pups and "peeps" appeared contented with the change.

The next morning Rodman gently placed the collie with her puppies and the hen with her "peeps." During the day Mrs. Rodman was forced to free the hen and collie because of the racket they kicked up.

No sooner were they free than the Barred Rock took possession of the puppies and the collie lined her brood of "peeps" up around her.

When Rodman came home in the evening he saw the lay of things and refused to interfere further. Now the collie has her "peeps" and the hen her puppies.

RETALIATION WITH A POINT

German Florist, Goaded Beyond Bearing, Finally Driven to a Really Neat Comparison.

"Thou are like unto a flower," warbles the German poet to his love.
A certain exasperated old German florist and nurseryman who flourished half a century ago in New York was accustomed to assert with equal positiveness that a flower is like a woman.

He had many women customers whose trade he appreciated, but whose demands often drove him to rumple his upstanding Teutonic brush of hair until he looked like an angry parrot. He finally unbosomed himself to the husband of one of them, whose diary has preserved his words:

"I have so much trouble with the ladies when they come in to buy mine rose! They wants him hardy, they wants him doable, they wants him mundtly, they wants him fragrand, they wants him nice golor, they wants him eberryttings in von rose. I hopes I am not what you calls one uncillant man, but I have somedimes to say to that ladies, 'Madam, I never often sees that ladies that was beautiful, that was rich, that was goot-tempered, that was young, that was indeligend, that was discreed, that was bervecton in one ladies. I see her mooch not!'" —Youth's Companion.

FOREIGNER'S PRAISE.

Capt. Vivian Lockett of the English polo team praised at the Piping Rock club American politeness.

"American men are the politest chaps on earth," he said. "No wonder your suffragettes aren't militant. No wonder your cars are so shamefully overcrowded."

"I don't think a man ever loses anything by being polite while traveling," an American said to me the other day. He was setting off on his vacation as he spoke.

"Well," said I, "there's one thing you're going to lose through your politeness," said I.

"What's that?" said he.

"Your seat to a woman," I replied, "in the very first trolley car you enter."

WELL QUALIFIED.

"Did you hear that that poor fellow who lost both his legs in an automobile accident intends to go into politics?"

"No. How can he, without a leg to stand on?"

"Oh, he expects to go on the stump!"—Judge.

AT THE PICNIC.

"There are ants in the currant jelly."

"Black ants or red ants?"

"Red ants."

"Good. They won't be noticed so much."
